

Cedi wins a Prestigious Award

Cedi's distinguished 30+ year Non-Executive Director career was recognised by the Institute of Directors -East of England Director of the Year awards with him picking up the 2019 'Non-Executive of the Year' award.

At the awards lunch held at the exclusive Jockey Club Rooms in Newmarket on the 14th June, The Institute of Directors recognised the most outstanding Directors in a number of categories. With the East of England region representing nearly 17,000 businesses, the standard of entries were high and the competition fierce.

Cedi was described in the citation as "A strong and well-rounded NED that would be an asset to many Boards".

Cedi now goes forward to the Institute of Directors National Finals in London in October
